wooden synagogue in Grondo, Poland; 18th century construction

The Center for Jewish Studies invites you to a special film screening and discussion in commemoration of the 71st anniversary of Kristallnacht.

“The Lost Wooden Synagogues of Eastern Europe”

For hundreds of years, the Jews of Eastern European rural communities built their houses of worship from wood. Narrated by Theodore Bikel, this award-winning film tells the story of those synagogues, the life that surrounded them before World War II and their fate in the past 50 years.
